“ Growing up in South Harriman and attending South Harriman Baptist Church at that time, the Winfree Family have always been family friends, as well as, the Garrett Family. I am sorry for the loss of your Mother, as you will miss her so much. Praying for you to be uplifted by the Holy Spirt during this time.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Della. I remember her laugh and how sweet and kind she was. She had the patients of Jobe and I would know because I practically lived at the house. My time spent with you Gwen and your family are a majority of my childhood memories and. I will always cherish them.

*Love always
