“ In my whole lifetime, I never thought I would be sitting here missing you. but now even almost four months later...Here I am, Missing you like crazy. Still feeling that this was all a dream and at any minute you would come barging in the house yelling about lights being on. It's never going to be the same without you Papie...

Love you

“ One thing I can say about Pappie, is he was always a good friend to me and my family. He helped me so many times with Nicole (Coco) getting her to horse events with Kenya. He kept watch over her just like she was his granddaughter. Always honest and kind. This breaks our hearts!

“ Dennis,
As you visited or home last Thursday who was to know it would be the last time we would ever see or talk again, we will miss all your phone calls, all the times you pass the house and blow the horn, and all the laughter you provided to my family. We will miss you dearly, may god bless your soul and be with the family through all the hard times to come, we love you and will miss you with all our Hearts.

God Bless and Rest in Peace.

Love always,

“ Dennis, I only had the pleasure of meeting you a few weeks ago. You were the first person I met when I moved up here from Alabama, I woke you up napping on the couch at the office. I'm sorry we couldn't have been friends longer but I sure am glad I met you. Don't worry about Louis I'll be around the office and help keep things cleaned up and properly maintained. I've been praying for your family and will continue to pray for them.

“ My deepest thoughts and prayers are with the entire Patterson family during this horrible time.
Dennis, Just a few weeks ago as my family was recovering from the loss of everything we owned, you walked into our temporary home and, as always, brought a smile to our hearts and to our faces.
Thank you. The first time we met, while helping a neighbor -who will be beyond lost without his "big bro", I knew that God had sent you into this community as a friend, neighbor, and protector. I will never forget those "stories" you told, nor the love you showed to your fellow man. (Don't worry, we will look over your "little bro"). I only wish your job here with us was not over so soon.
May God give you all the strength to find your faith; and the faith to always find your strength in Him.
