“ Diana with a heart full of joy and love cared for people. She even gave transportation to the airport for a trip to Alaska. Food wise, whatever was on the current menu, she shared with all. Sharing her faith or vocal support was treasured by those around her. You might say Diana followed the model for living that Jesus taught. May God continue to bless her witness and sharing in the Paint Rock community.

“ My prayers and love are with you.....Diana shared the Lord and saved my life and the lives of my children when we were in our darkest valley. I am forever grateful to her. Because of her unselfish love, we will all meet again to be together with Jesus. Andrew and David send their condolences too. She will be missed so much by all.....
