

Dolores Mae "Dodie" Campbell

March 9, 1942 - April 15, 2024

Dolores Mae Campbell ("Dodie"), aged 82, passed away peacefully at her home in Sweetwater, TN, on April 15, 2024. Born on March 9, 1942, in Hastings, NY, she was the daughter of Earl Boots and Celia Johnson. Dolores was preceded in death by her brother Earl Boots.

Dolores attended grade school in Camden, NY and went to high school in Hillsboro, NY. Her sheer wit and common sense superseded any scholar with keen and hilarious sarcasm. On November 25, 1959, she married Kenneth Michael Campbell. For over 60 years, Dolores and Kenneth stood by each other and helped raise their family.

No stranger to hard work, Dolores had several manufacturing jobs that provided home cooked meals and a warm house in upstate New York. Kenneth and Dolores lived in New York, Texas, and eventually settled in Tennessee. When she wasn't at work you could find her fishing, at a garage sale, or being an active member of her church. Dolores was very resourceful and wasted nothing. Her hobbies included crafting, quilting, playing scrabble (she would always win), collecting hummingbirds, flowers, and being surrounded by her family, friends, and adorable Pomeranians.

Dolores leaves behind a legacy of love and strong Christian values. She is survived by her husband, Kenneth Campbell, two sisters Patricia Kowanes and Doris Palleschi, three children Cindy Manwarren (Martin), Kenneth Campbell, Jr. (Kelly), and Randy Campbell. Dolores also leaves behind 10 grandchildren: Mike Bishop, Shawna Edwards, Corinne Brink, Martin

Manwarren Jr., Travis Rifanburg, Kipp Rifanburg, Nicolle Burton, Erica Smith, Kenneth Campbell III, Ashely Adams, and several great grandchildren. At the request of the family, funeral services will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial contributions be made to the National Alzheimer's Foundation.
