“ I remember waiting outside the hospital as Donny's son Chuck was passing away thinking how hard it must be on a man to lose his son. Not many years later he lost his wife too. Donny was a funny man and was always cutting up and being nice to me, even though we were not related by blood. I know his brother Lou loved him dearly and was very proud of him and I know Donny loved his brother Lou and loved to tease him. All his family and friends are sad to see him pass and I count myself among them. Rest in peace and thanks for the memories.
