“ We become friends 40 years ago. She has been more like family to me than my own family. Weve scared so many good times together, and had our share of bad times, but through it all, I always knew she was the 1 person that always had my back, was there for me, and who understood me. My heart has a huge hole now, but she will always be with me in my thoughts, prayers and heart. I will never be the same without my girl Ann.
