“She was the very image of my grandmother, Hazel Burch Grimes. They shared their relationship through the Burch triplates, Allie, Mallie and Callie. When we visited her family gathering at Oakridge she was so gracious. It was like we had always known her. She was a lovely lady.

“Through the magic of the internet, I met Patricia Forde, who introduced me to her "Aunt Doris" in 2005. We met at the home of Patricia's brother and I was so taken with this fine family! "Aunt Doris", who was about my mother's age, looked almost exactly like my maternal grandmother, Hazel Burch Grimes! When I showed the pictures to other relatives, they too were amazed that there was such a resemblance between cousins who never knew of each other's existence. My cousin Gale and I went to a birthday party for Doris in Oak Ridge and were treated like part of the family. It is a great loss that her family has suffered with the passing of such a lovely matriarch. May God give you all comfort in your memories.

“ Granny, you were by far the best Grandmother a man could have. You kept me in line when I needed it, which was most of the time. I will truly miss you and I love you very much. As Brian stated give Dad a hug and kiss for me as well. You will always be the Queen of our family. Go rest high on that Mountain.
