“ I met Charles and Jean at a POW convention reunion in Fontana Dam, NC in 1984. Charlie and my grandfather were on the same Hellship and camp together. Our families became fast friends. I was 14 and she was the greatest person to me. She had a thick Tennessee accent that I had never heard before and I loved that. She would tell funny stories about pecans. I visited her house in Sweetwater and the Lost Sea. She was like a second grandmother figure to me. I will miss her dearly and will always Jeannie and Charley too.
