

Ebb Moore

February 14, 1931 - March 22, 2010

Ebb Moore age 79 of Kingston was called home after a short illness with cancer on March 22, 2010. He was saved April 2003 and was a member of Liberty Baptist Church of Kingston. Loved going to church and had many friends, never met a stranger anywhere he went. Worked on construction at age of 16 from there he went to K-25 Union Carbide for 5 years and to Martin Marietta for 38 years. Retired in 1994 as a laborer. He loved to trade on horses, cars and pocket knives, but the best thing he traded in was when he took off the old coat and put on the new one, Salvation. Preceded in death by parents Absy Moore and Kate Hunter Moore of Kingston. Sisters Pearl Wyrick and Sally Johnson, brothers Calvin, Hule, Paul, James, Grady, Mart, Wade, Brent Moore and great grandson Timothy Brown.

“ To the Moore Family, I want to let you know that your loss is greatly felt. I would always get a smile and a wave from Mr. Moore when driving by. I will miss that. But know that God is good and will bring peace and comfort to you all.

“ Terry, I was sorry to hear of the passing of my friend Ebb. He worked for me for a number of years and he was a excellent employee. I had observed his work over the years and he always did a fine job.. I enjoyed seeing him "horse trade."
I was most pleased to learn he had become a Christain. I know you are too.
It was a pleasure knowing Ebb. He was a good man.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Ebb was a very nice man and his kindness shows through to his children. I know how hard it is to let someone go that means so much to you, but find comfort in knowing that he is home. I will be praying for you all.
