

Edna B. Davis

May 30, 1913 - December 28, 2005

Edna B. Davis age 92 of Kingston, passed away Wednesday December 28, 2005 at the Methodist Medical Center. She was a member of Union Chapel Baptist Church and was formerly the secretary of her Sunday School Class. She enjoyed singing in the choir and assisting with Bible School when she was able. She also enjoyed traveling and quilting. Preceded in death by : Husband Lonnie Davis, son William Davis, infant son John Franklin Davis, grandson Chuck Duncan, and great grandson T. J. Duncan. Parents James and Harriett Hamilton. Brothers Joe, Sam, Ellis, Frank, June and Clarence Hamilton. Survivors include: daughter Barbara and husband Don Franklin of Kingston; daughter Harriett Rebecca and husband J. D. Loy of Harriman; daughter Edith Lawson of Harriman; daughter Norma and husband Sonny Duncan of Harriman; daughter Mary and husband Larry Sims of Morgan County; brother Henry Hamilton of Rockwood; sister Jean Leffew of Kingston; daughter-in-law Edna Davis of Kingston; 21 grandchildren; 27 great grandchildren; and 14 great great grandchildren. Funeral 12 Noon Saturday December 31, 2005 at the Union Chapel Baptist Church where the body will lie-in-state for one hour before the services with Rev. Ronnie Nickell and Rev. Raymond Brown officiating. Burial in Kingston Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends from 7 until 9pm Friday at the Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston.