“ Edris was my husband, Austin Payne's, aunt. I loved her so much as she was the sweetest lady ever. As Nancy said, a great cook but she also helped me with info on the Payne family as I do genealogy. When her brother Austin SR passed, she treated my mother-in-law, Carzell like her own sister and checked on her all the time. Anyone who ever knew Edris Deal should feel honored as there aren't many like her.

“ We all called her Granny. She loved to try new recipes and was the best cook in the world. Taking care of her family was her job in life Especially her grandson, Alec , who she loved so much. She was a great lady and a virtuous woman. She taught me so much. She was my best friend. I will miss her so much.
