

Elessa Lisa Hatfield

September 12, 1953 - January 13, 2009

Elessa “Lisa” Hatfield went to be with the Lord peacefully on January 13, 2009 at the Methodist Medical Center in Oak Ridge with her devoted husband, son, and other family and friends by her side.

Lisa was a faithful Christian and a member of Orchard View Baptist Church in Oliver Springs.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Albert and Lucille Reynolds Cox, and a brother, David Cox.

Lisa was a loving wife, mother, sister, aunt, and friend. Spending time with her husband, son, and great-nephews Hunter, Garrett, and Brennan (who referred to her as Nana) were the highlights of her life.

She is survived by her husband and love of her life James “Pete” Hatfield; son David Dickey; sisters and brothers-in-law Mary and Butch Clowers of Oakdale and Elaine and Steve Melton of Oliver Springs; sister-in-law and husband Susan and Ralph Magill of Harriman; step-mother Florence Cox; step-brothers Wimp Shoopman and wife Kathy and Kenneth Shoopman; step-sisters Sandra Brown and husband, Vince; and Linda Edwards and husband, Bill; nieces Holley Chitwood and husband, Anthony, and Amanda Crass and husband Sam; nephews Ronnie Melton and wife Cindy, Brian Magill and wife Misty; and Michael and Josh Brown; great nieces Makenzie and Morgan Crass and Isabel Magill; and great nephews Hunter and Garrett Melton and Brennan Chitwood. Extended family Brenda and Allen Webb; Sherry and TH Brown; Carman and Kersten Bradford; Lisa and Bernie Humphrey and Jamie

Jones.

Lisa had so many friends that you could never name them all. She had a special place in her heart for Randy and Kelly West, Matthew and Cat Lively; Chris Duncan and Christy Brown, Terry and Sasha Hill, Scott and Connie Ball, and Buddy and Connie Sharp.
