“ I met Miss Emma several years ago when i worked at a local thrift store...I always enjoyed both her and the daughters who frequently came in to prow! ...I soon came to know her as Momma and that's what she has been to me ever since ...She has a devoted family that loves her dearly but who also rests in the knowledge that she is in the arms of the Lord ..I pray that you Girls will remember all the love she had spread around and smile deeply when you think of her because she is one of the finest women that i have ever met ...Oh what a glorious homecoming I will have when I get to see Momma again...Love coming your way as she is laid to rest...
