

Emma Huffine Norman

December 4, 1921 - December 25, 2008

Emma Huffine Norman, age 87, a life-long resident of Roane County, passed away December 25, 2008. Preceded in death by husband, Walter H. Norman; father and mother, Jesse T. and Laura Belle Eblen Huffine; sister, Beula Blanch; brothers, Arvine, Sam, and Gene Huffine; sisters-in law, Grace, Vivian, Evelyn, and Lucille Huffine; nieces, Coleen Ballenger, Naomi King, Valerie Schmidt; nephew, Bill Huffine. She spent her life lovingly caring for her mother, father, and husband. She was a member of Bradbury United Methodist Church and retired from Union Carbide, Oak Ridge. She is survived by step-son and wife, Ralph and Agnes Norman, and grandsons, Mark, and Max and wife, Kathy; great granddaughter, Emma; all of Huntsville, AL. She is also survived by caregivers, niece, Gail Vineyard, and nephew and wife, Howard and Carolyn Huffine; great niece, Sherrie Verschueren. Other surviving nieces and nephews are Alvin and Margret Huffine, Tamera and Richard Moore, Sammie and Bill Rednour, Sandra and John Smith, Michael Huffine, Charlotte and Gary Saunders, Robert and Carol Huffine, Rebecca and Jake Armbruster, Denny and Lee Ann Huffine, Jeff and Stacie Huffine; several great and great-great nieces, nephews and cousins; special great-great nephews, Scotty and Stevie Verschueren, Lane and Hayden Vineyard.

The family will receive friends at Kyker Funeral Home, Kingston, Monday, December 29, from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. with the funeral to follow at 8:00 p.m. Officiating the services will be Rev. Howard Huffine and Alvin Huffine, nephews, and Rev. Thomas Markwood.

Graveside service will be Tuesday, December 30, 11:00 a.m. at Lawnville Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Lawnville Cemetery Association, 274 Lane Hedgecock Road, Kingston, TN 37763 or Bradbury Cemetery Association, 4092 Buttermilk Road, West, Kingston, TN 37763