“ *Hey cousins, So sorry to hear of Ennis passing. I haven't seen anyone from Tenn. since the 70's. I had the wonderful experience of taking mom & dad around to see all the aunts and uncles that one last time. On our way home we went by where pappy and mammie use to live and passed a little creek and it was full of watercress. I pulled over, jumped the fence and got every bit of it for mom. When we got home we had hot bacon grease over crispy water cresses. Ennis is in a place where there is no sorrow, no pain & the Lord has wiped all the tears from his eyes forever more. He, Oscar, Dad and the uncles, aunts & cousins are catching up and having a really good chat with the Holy One. Jesus Christ. Love you all to the moon and back...
