

Everett Massengill

October 30, 1942 - July 6, 2018

Everett Massengill, Ten out of Ten people eventually die, but only 1 out of 700,000 get struck by lightning. Which is fitting, because if you ask anyone lucky enough to meet him, Everett Massengill was easily one in a million. Everett Massengill died just before 5pm on Friday July 6th at his home in Kingston, TN. Gifted with true charisma and an unyielding work ethic, he combined both working as a telephone repairman for BellSouth for 37 years and serving as a member of the Roane County School Board for 28 consecutive years. Most notably as Chairman, Everett spearheaded the building and development of Midway Middle School. Known for having a deep pride and compassion for everyone around him, he was a revered figure within the community and will be more than missed. Everett was a member of Luminary United Methodist Church, A United States Army Veteran, and a member of Union Lodge #38 F & AM in Kingston, TN. Preceded in death by parents Melvin Massengill and Daisy Russell Massengill; Sisters Carolyn Daugherty, Novella Armes and Brother in law Randall Armes.

Survived by wife Nancy Strange Massengill of Kingston TN; Daughter Terri (Roy) Comer, Green Cove Springs, FL; Son Eric (Chrissy) Massengill of Kingston, TN.

Grandchildren: Zane (Lulu) Comer of New York, NY, Grayson Comer of Green Cove Springs, FL, Josie Massengill, Ville Massengill and Noah Halliburton -all of Kingston, TN.

Siblings: Ralph (Robin) Massengill, Glen (JoAnne) Massengill, Gary (Gail) Massengill, and Geraldine (Jerry) Mehlhorn, sister in law Margaret Strange Morgan and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

The family will receive friends from 5 until 9pm Monday, July 9, 2018 at the Midway Middle School. The body will lie-in-state from 1 until 2pm Tuesday at Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston followed by the funeral service at 2pm with Pastor Don Long, Zane Comer, Grayson Comer and Pastor Gary Massengill officiating. Followed by a Masonic Memorial Service conducted by Union Lodge #38 F & AM. Burial to follow at Kingston Memorial Gardens with Military Honors by the Roane County Military Memorial Honor Guard. Pallbearers: Zane Comer, Grayson Comer, Michael Massengill, Jason Massengill, Matthew Mehlhorn, Robbie Armes and David Alexander Mitchell.

“ I just learned of Evertt passing yesterday. I first met Everett in the summer of 1973. I was expecting my son and he had come to repair the phone on the Fox family farm. He became a big big part of our family. He was a very caring loving person. I can't tell you how sorry I am. I don't have the words. But as I write this the tears are flowing. The last time I saw him was back at the farm when we had the first family reunion of Dewey and Annie Mae Fox children and I was so glad he came. I was so glad to see him. Of course he asked about my son. Again I am so sorry. But he's walking with our Savior and wearing that beautiful smile.

“ Everett "Ed" Massengill was a tremendous asset for his leadership and guidance as the school board member for the Midway district of Roane County. No one will ever be able to match his personality, everlasting smile, and desire for the best for the "South of the River" schools. Ed was a gentleman, friend and peronality we will certainly miss. Nancy, Terri, & Eric-- my heartfelt condolences goes out to you, over the loss of my friend Ed Massengill.
