“ Gary, Karen, David, and Pat,
My condolences on Frank's death. Mother is living with me in Atlanta now and remembers Frank and Marie fondly. I am sorry that I didn't know about Marie's passing until today.
Best to all of you.

“ Family -
We want you to know you are in our thoughts and prayers. Frank and Marie were always good neighbors when we lived on Rose Bailey Lake Rd. We especially enjoyed hearing them play with the "retirees" band when we had the opportunity. May God be with you everyday and in especially in the days ahead.

“ Frank never had to say "I love you." You just knew it after you got to know him. His knowledge of Old Testament history rivaled that of college professors, yet he discussed it with such humility and clarity that it was easy to learn from him. Young's Chapel has seen the "Graduation" of another of our beloved spiritual heavy haulers. Our sympathy goes out to all of Frank's family, as well as the comfort of knowing that we shall see him – and Marie – again.
