“ Papaw, I am so sorry you had to spend your last days in pain. No one should ever have to endure the pain and suffering that you went through or be put to rest the way you were. You deserved so much more respect than what you were given. The behavior and language of your family in Tennessee was appalling to say the least but I know you saw the charade and walked away, I know you were not a man to raise a family to behave in such a manner. You didn't invite drama or tolerate it. I admire that about you and carry that with me. That's why I didn't stay! You would of never excluded any of your family but Barbara made it clear that was what she wanted, nothing was ever said about what Floyd would have wanted. Just the casket. If we had the power to change it we would. Tuesday I woke with peace in my heart after knowing what I know now that you are truly in a better place and with no more suffering. I am so proud that you were my grandfather. I will be expecting some good ghost stories when I see you again. I will love you always Papaw..(I can hear you saying "ya will")

“ I remember cooking for him when I was really young. Fishing with him. All his stories.

I remember one time while we were fishing Papaw was wrestling with a big fish. It was so big it jerked him in the water, and he go soaking wet. It was so funny.

Many more memories that are just small, but they mean a lot to me.

I love you papaw!! Rest in Peace!
