“ Freeda was a true friend; she was always there in good and bad times. We prayed together, laughed together, and cried together. She loved to worship God and praised him every time we spoke. She was a good mother and mother-in-law, Travis and Angela loved so much by her. Bobby always said she is such a good woman and friend. I loved her smile and knowing she was always there for us. Will see you in heaven, our dear friend.
