“ I met Garry Lee Barton Sr. at Verizon selling him a phone for their beloved Kenzie. He and Mary’s decision to love her and care for her was an instant confirmation to me that I was doing business with a man of unmatched character. David and I send our love and sympathies to you Mary, Garry Lee, Kenzie, Norma and the rest of Garry’s loving family.

Who would’ve dreamed that less than a year after meeting Garry Lee Sr. , we’d become the best of friends with Garry Lee Jr. and his wonderful wife Heidi.

“ My brother, Gary Barton was my hero throughout my whole life. He was always there with a hug every time I needed one. I know our mom was waiting for him with open arms, right along side of Jesus, our Lord. Hoping to see all of them sooner than later. From your Norma Dale (he was the only person to get away with calling me that 😊
