“ So saddened to hear about Bob. He was someone I considered to be one of my best friends. There was never a time that he would call me and when I would say Hello, he always would say "Are you Naked"!! I don't remember where or when that got started, but it always brought a smile to my face no matter what kind of day I was having. Another favorite memory I have of Bob is when he was telling the story about fly fishing and trying to impress Janice. I still laugh when I think about it. And of course the time he walked up to the police car in Searchlight, NV and tapped on the window. He wanted the officer to go check on an elderly couple that was broke down out in the desert. He kept knocking on the window and the officer never responded. It was hilarious when he figured out it was a "dummy" in the car. Cardboard Charlie. We never let him forget that. I am sooo going to miss this man. Rest in Peace Bob, we shall meet again.
