“ In loving memory of my Uncle George You were the best uncle and I will never forget the memories that we have shared together.

*You were one to always make us laugh when you told us funny jokes and stories. I will never forget the time when we moved to Florida, I was riding with you and Mary following Joe and mom in her Lincoln Continenta, I the trailer that you and Joe built out of a hay wagon was hooked up to it with a bumper hitch; all of a sudden Joe lost control of the car and trailer and they almost flipped over, we were all in a state of shock. After, we got the bumper fixed that almost tore off, I was frightened the rest of the way to Florida. We all made it there safely. We thought all the furniture on that trailer was going to be damaged, but little did we know when we unloaded it there wasn't even a scratch or dent on anything. One heck of a trailer that you and Joe built! I will never forget all of the times us kids went to auctions with you and mom and boy you really taught mom how to bid. To this day she still enjoys auctions. I keep hearing your voice over and over in my head and I just laugh and say yep, that was my uncle George.
Rest in peace God has gained another angel.*
