“ George built my home in Kingston in 1963. I've never know a finer person and I'm deeply sadden to read of his passing.
My condolences to his family and especially to Dave Standridge, who built some additions to the home George built.

“ There are hardly words to express our sympathy. Mr. George and Mrs. Marie were some of the best friends and neighbors to be found. Both were such strong and wonderful examples of God's love, they always displayed a Christian example for parenting, growing and learning how to strive for better.

It is difficult to console the sadness, at this time. May each of you take comfort in knowing that Mr. George is in no more pain, no longer will be sad, or miss Mrs. Marie, he now walks in God's glory where assuredly Mrs. Marie was standing, waiting. She was there with a smile and a wink saying "I'm glad you are home, George", as she done for so many years here.

Those left behind are suffering the loss; Mr. George now is praising and rejoicing. May God give comfort each day, and with each tear that is shed, may he send a happy memory. Now in Glory, your parents will know how important they have been to so many people.

All our sympathy, and love,

“ *Mr. & Mrs. Standridge used to come by Dave's house fairly regularly when us "guys" would gather at Dave's garage to play music. They always enjoyed listening to the music, and we enjoyed seeing them.
We were able to travel with Dave to Mr. Standridge's house last Tuesday evening and play a little for him. As always, he was upbeat and enthusiastic in his quiet way. That's how I will always remember him.
Donna and I offer our sincere condolences to the family on their loss.

“ We are saddened by the passing of George, but know that he is now with our precious Lord and Savior, and his lovely wife Marie. We want all the family to know that we thought George to be a very special man, and one who's life portrayed his devotion to his God, family and community.

Love and Prayers,
Ed and Nancy
