“ My mom was the best mom in the world. She was always there for me. When I was young she would make me dresses to wear to the skating rink and some for school too. When I got married, I would call her every night for months to ask her how to make a certain meal. Of course, it was a little bit of this and some of this. She didn't always follow a recipe. Now, I cook the same way and most people love my cooking too. I am going to miss talking to my mom every week but now I will just have to talk with her from heaven. I know she was happy to see Jesus, my dad and all the rest of her family and friends that got there before she did. She will be greatly missed by so many people.

I love you and miss you so much already!

“ Sending prayers, comfort, and my deepest sympathies. I know how hard it is to say goodbye to a mom. Just know she is reunited with Donald, her parents, brothers, sisters, and my mom her niece. She is happy where she is, we just have to find a way to go on. Love you all. Stephanie Henry
