“ Angels are sent to us to have for awhile to keep us safe and loved on earth. Such is the case with my Mom. Always caring for others she received encouragement and love from those around her. A steadfast faith helped her endure whatever hardships might come along. She was extremely proud of the 4 children she raised and wouldn't shy away from bragging about them to all who would listen. When her children married, the new spouse then became one of her children. She always knew what to say and also what not to say. She was never judgemental, gave advice when asked for but gave her support and love constantly. When she became your friend, you had a friend for life. The support she gave me through the years is immeasurable and I am a better person for it. There is not a day goes by that I am not encouraged by her love and support.

I love you Mom.
