J. Karen....Wayne was a wonderful man and very special brother-in-law. His life was a blessing to our family and we all knew his love for us was the same as our love was for him. He was kind and gentle, loving and caring, supportive and nurturing. That is the reason we chose Wayne to be the godfather to "our" Wayne.

Wayne was my shoulder to cry on during the sickness and death of my husband, Sammy, whom he loved like a brother. His daily visits reassured us that he was here to help in any way he could if we needed anything.

God bless you, my sister, because I know that half of your heart was taken away when Heaven reclaimed Wayne from this earth. Be comforted in knowing that death can never take away the special love that the two of you had for each other.

I love you.
