

Grace P. Rymer

December 18, 1911 - December 18, 2003

Grace P. Rymer, 92, of Kingston, TN, passed away Thursday, December 18, 2004, at Baptist West Hospital in Knoxville. She was preceded in death by her husband, C. L. Rymer, in 1997. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Andrew and Gail, of Columbia, Maryland; grandchildren, Andrew, Jr. and Katie Rymer of Knoxville, and Sarah and Nathan Eaton of Charlotte, NC, and one great-grandchild, Lauren Grace Rymer, age 23 months.

Grace and C. L. were long-time residents of Kingston, where Mrs. Rymer was the Home Economics teacher at Roane County High School. Her many students remember her as the teacher who taught them many of the life lessons they would need as adults. The Rymers' were also members of the Kingston United Methodist Church. Mrs. Rymer loved playing bridge and was actively involved in the Oak Ridge Bridge Association's Monday Morning Bridge Club until her death.

Funeral services 2:30pm Sunday at Kyker Funeral Home, Kingston, TN. The Rymer family will receive friends beginning at 1:30 p.m. with funeral services at 2:30 p.m. Interment will follow at Kingston Memorial Gardens.