Today I learned that a dear childhood friend had passed away. He has been gone for 23 days. I had no idea that he was that ill. The last time I actually saw him was at his Uncle Odell's visitation. Grady was always the sweetest person. Had the best personality.

I wish I had kept up with him on facebook, but he wasn't on there that much.

To his children and grandchildren, you have my deepest sympathies.

“ Kristy, Jalen, Keke and Rhonda - My heart breaks for you in the loss of our dear Grady. Somewhere I read that cousins are your first true friends. That is definitely true for Grady and I. We were the youngest in our family, and I guess we had to stick together to survive our older Hodge brothers, sisters and cousins. Although we moved from Tennessee when I was young, I always looked forward to my summer visits and the fun times I spent with Grady. Once we climbed a tree at the farm and spent all day carving our names in it. The tree died and we thought it was because of us 😬 It was our secret. He even let me ride his beloved little motorcycle when I didn't know what I was doing. 😬 Grady was one of the most caring and kind people I have ever known. I will always cherish the wonderful childhood memories I have of the fun times we had. May he rest in peace. I love you my dear cousin.
