

Helen Frances Clore Gaddis

July 9, 2006

Helen Frances Clore Gaddis age 78 of Kingston departed this life on Sunday July 9, 2006 at Jamestowne Assisted Living following a courageous battle with cancer. Helen was a devoted member of First Baptist Church in Kingston where she and her husband Jack have many dear friends. Her enduring belief in God touched the lives of many and she was a daily witness to her faith. Helen was born in Polk County, Tennessee on July 30, 1927 and she moved with her family to the Kingston area in 1954 where she worked as a beautician and as a licensed practical nurse for many years. She was an active member of Eastern Star Chapter 405 and Amaranth Charity 17 until failing health curtailed her participation. She is survived by her husband, Jack; Daughter and son in law Sharon and Jeff Cleary; Son Lewis Clayborne; Stepdaughter Gail Stinchfield; Grandchildren Emily Cleary, Ryan Cleary, Maresa Stinchfield, Travis Clayborne, Bradley Clayborne; Sister Lucille Ledford; and a large extended family. The family will receive friends from 10 until 11am Wednesday with the funeral to follow at 11am at the First Baptist Church with Dr. Roy Graves officiating. The family request that in lieu of flowers contributions may be made to First Baptist Church of Kingston 215 North Kentucky Street Kingston, TN. 37763. Graveside service and internment will be 3pm in Macedonia Cemetery, in Wolf Creek, N.C. Kyker Funeral Home of Kingston in charge of arrangements.
