“ Helen was a precious person. I will greatly miss her sitting across from me in Sunday School. I know she made a tremendous effort to come in that door on Sunday but now I also know that she is walking straight without any pain.

Patricia and John--I know you have an empty place in your life and our thoughts and prayers are with you to-day.

“ I have such great childhood memories of spending time at Helen's house. She was such a sweet, fun and loving woman! She was a wonderful friend to our family. I know she is having a wonderful time seeing her loved ones and most of all sitting at the feet of Jesus! Much love to Patricia and John during this time!

“ Patricia and John,

Your Mom brought such joy into my life. She was such a blessing in so many ways. She taught me many things, about being a Christain! One thing she taught me, was how to laugh during adversity! In fact, I've never met anyone, along the way,that I've laughed so much with, she was a delightful person to be around and one of the most dedicated Christian Lady's, I've ever known. There was surely great rejoicing in heaven, when she arrived. She told me many times about her sweet Mother and wonderful husband Troy, It was like I knew them so well! What happy memories you will carry through life of your Mom, Patricia. I know she loved you dealy and John, her SON, also! What a wonderful blessing, Helen was to our family, such an encourager to Jerry in his ministry. God bless you and care for you both, in this time in your life. Love and Sincerely, Shirley V.
