Ms Schubert was a loving, compassionate, and courageous mother, grandmother, sister and friend. Her love for her family and friends was unconditional and there was no mountain too high for her to climb to protect the ones she loved. She loved life and respected all humanity within it. Her greatest love was for her children and the beautiful lives of her grandchildren that was given to her through them. Her greatest asset was "courage" that she received through her commitment of our Lord Jesus Christ who was her light and salvation. In her past time she enjoyed reading, gardening and spending time with family. She spent her quiet time with her cat "Max". The family will receive friends Saturday March 14, 2009 from 6:00-8:00 at Kyker Funeral Home of Kingston with funeral services following with Brother Shane Clark officiating. Graveside services will be held at Bethel Cemetery in Ten Mile, TN Sunday March 15, 2009 at 2:00.
