

Horace Ray Cavender

November 28, 1942 - September 25, 2022

Horace Ray Cavender, 79 years of age, was a resident of Loudon, Tennessee. He passed away peacefully on Sunday September 25, 2022, at Parkwest Medical Center in Knoxville, Tennessee.

He is survived by daughters Kimberly Ray Cavender of Knoxville Tennessee, Christine Elizabeth Anguiano (Ray) of Nashville Tennessee, Grandson – Cassius Ray Anquiano, and ex-wife Sylvia Ann Cavender of San Ramon, California.

Other loving family members include:

Sisters:

Patricia W. Steimer (Gary) of Farragut, TN

Brenda W. Thompson of Nashville, TN

Charlene W. Buhler (Alex) of Lebanon, TN

Katherine (Kitty) W. Copeland of Kingston, TN

Bina Marie Kirby (Leonard) of Harriman, TN

As well as many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He was born in Columbia, Tennessee on November 28, 1942 – son of Staff Sgt. Ernest Cavender and Mary Christine Rieves Cavender. Ernest died on active duty with the Army Air Corps in 1943. Preceded in death by his parents James Thomas and Christine Rieves Woods of (Midtown) Harriman, TN, as well as his brother J. T. Woods Jr. of Kingston Tennessee.

Ray carried many titles through life: Son, Brother, Husband, Father, Nephew, Grandfather, FRIEND.

He answered to names like Ray, Bubba, Horace, and Dude through his Roane County High School years (Kingston) and as a graduate of Tennessee Technological Institute (Cookeville). Oh yes, also “Fat Thunder” to his Indian Princesses “Little Sunbeam” and “Little Snowflake” (later- as a devoted Dad). Jobs went from a business degree in Tennessee to his first job in a factory for prefabricated houses then at Lad & Dad Slacks company in Georgia. It was in Ashburn Ga. that he was offered a position with Levi Strauss and returned to Knoxville to run the factory in the Cherry Hill area. Little Rock, Arkansas followed, with a return to Knoxville before being asked to join the corporate level of Levi Strauss in San Francisco, California. He held the position of Director of Manufacturing in the Docker’s Division at the time of his retirement in 1997.

As a man of many interests and talents, he enjoyed cooking, travel, art, photography, old cars and trucks, football, golf, tennis and gardening. He proudly contributed to community groups like Jaycees and SCORE, as well as serve as a board member for Michael Dunn Center.

He met, shared, and was gifted with many friends along the way, and he valued every opportunity to share as much time and as many stories as possible.

He took time, in the last few years, to prepare for this event and we choose to forward his message:

“To the people I leave behind, I hope I have done GOOD. I hope I have done RIGHT. When I have not done GOOD or RIGHT, I hope I accepted my Responsibility. I enjoyed the RIDE – and ALL of YOU.”

Horace Ray Cavender

“ Our heartfelt sympathy to all of Ray's family. We know how much you must be hurting, and you will be in our thoughts and prayers. We hope that you can feel he is still with you in the memories that you have from all those years together as such a close family. When you love someone they live forever in your hearts. We know Ray lives forever.
Sending our love to a very special family.

“ Uncle Ray is going to be missed by so many and his absence leaves a big hole in my heart💔. He may have left us in this world, but I know he remains with all of us in our hearts. When we remember a special moment or a funny story, rest assured that he is there laughing along side us. To all my family and to his extended (friends) family, may we find peace and love in our memories of uncle Ray.
