

Ida Mariah Harrison

February 21, 1934 - March 26, 2024

Ida Mariah Harrison, age 90 departed this life on Tuesday, March 26, 2024, with family by her side. She was the daughter of the late Deanie and Mary Kate West Moore. She was married to the late James C Harrison. In the union there is one stepson and five sons and five daughters. She attended Campbell High School. She was a dedicated member of Braxton Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church. She sang in the choir and worked in the kitchen until her health started to decline. She loved God and her church family. She worked till she was 80 years old as a housekeeper. Whatever struggle in life she accepted them and never complained. Mariah was a mother so very content in her own home and on earth she toiled but in heaven she would rest. She was very true, loyal, compassionate and a mother as well as a friend, always concerned about the welfare of others and lending a helping hand whenever needed. She never complained about anything, she loved her family, friends, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was known as Granny, Grandma and Nanny and responded to all. She was always a caregiver. Mariah always thought of others before herself. She enjoyed her flowers as she sat on her porch. She had many friends and was a well-loved member of the community. Mariah was preceded in death by her husband James Calvin Harrison, Father and Mother Deanie and Mary Kate West Moore, son Curtis Moore and daughter Lorriane Harrison. Brother Charles Moore, Sister Mary Rose Saffell, and other family members.
