“ I thought of you today, but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday and days before that too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. All I have are memories and a picture in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake, from which I'll never part. God has you in his arms. I have you in my heart.

“ My Mama: She was the family tie that held us together. She was strong, forgiving, and giving. She had hard times in her life and never complained. She persevered. She considered it an honor to care of others in need. You could not outgive her, nor outwork her. She tried to teach us lots of things, among the most important: "Do unto others as you would have done to you. Be sure your sins will find you out." Be quick to forgive. Work and earn an honest wage. Be honest. Go to church on Sunday and iron your clothes! ha! (people judge you by how you look.) Remember and honor those who have gone before you. Always be willing to help someone in need. Travel when you can and see the world. Be willing to learn something new. Have fun. Be a peacemaker.

Mama considered any child 12 and under to be "baby." "oh, he didn't know better, he was just a baby." Of note this did not apply to her children...just the grands and great grands. In re to most criminals Mama would say "they were probably just having hard times." Of note, this again did not apply to her children.ha! We, the children, lived in fear of illegal activity, not because we feared the law, but because we feared Mama. ha! She had high standards for us and we never wanted to disappoint her.

I have an empty space in my heart that will remain until I am with her again and I know I was so very blessed to have her as my Mother!

Mama, I Love you Jan

“ I am related to Bob Weaver and have met Ida only a couple of times but she made an impression me the very first time. She was a kind and warm hearted lady. She welcomed us with kindness and open arms when we lost my MaMaw and came down to bury her at Paint Rock Cemetery. I am sorry we cannot be there, but I can tell you that many of us on the Weaver side miss her greatly. So sorry for your loss.

“ Ida was my mother-in-law. I have been married to Rex for almost 45 years. She was one of the kindest people I have even known. She made all the children and grandchildren feel special. She was like a second mother to me and treated me just like a daughter. I will miss her more that she could ever know. She raised six great children and I feel extremely blessed to have been a part of her life.

“ My son, Brad, and I both send our deepest sympathies for your loss. Aunt Ida was so very kind to all of us when we visited in the summers. It makes no difference how old we are, it really hurts to lose a parent. May God comfort your pain.

“ My sisters Louise, Linda and Esther Brock were Bill Brock's daughters. "Aunt Ida" was my favorite aunt who we used to visit on the farm in Tennessee and also see Rex Ray Gay and Hal (Tim and Jan weren't born yet) and get the best cooking in the world. Lunch every day was like a Thanksgiving meal. She would take us berry picking. We would beg our mom to let us stay with "Aunt Ida" and nobody else the entire time we were in Tennessee! I always thought she was the most beautiful woman I ever saw, and she always had a twinkle in her eye. Everyone who knew her was blessed by her. My condolences to the family. Love Dena
