“ Although I only knew Iva 4yrs, she changed my life. She taught me so much. And practiced what she preached. She taught me patience, forgiveness, love, and about our amazing God. My favorite things to do with her was to sit and read the Bible or Bible stories. I have trouble understanding things sometimes so she would break it down for me and give examples so I understood. We loved to sit and watch the kids play out the window from the school across the street and the birds. We also enjoyed singing together. She has taught me so much about life and how to live by God and follow his will. She taught me to put the lord first. And that even when things feel hopeless, God has a plan and to trust it bc he won't steer you wrong. Iva was an incredible women that I will miss terribly but remember often.

I am so sorry to hear this Sharon and family. Iva was the best friend I ever had. She and Perry got me through one of the roughest times of my life. As their Sunday school teacher my children learned a lot about God and she was a friend to them also for many years. She was one of a kind. If you went to her with a problem she had the gift of being able to know exactly what to say to help I loved her so much and also you and John and your families. I know that like my husband who passed away in June that they are in a better place and I can picture them walking the streets of gold today. Love you all. And my prayers are with you and the family.
