“ Dear Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. I have always thought a lot of Mrs. Iva Pearl. As a child, I have such fond memories of her and as an adult, it was always a pleasure to see her or to be in a church service with her. She always had a smile on her face. She shared several recipes with my mother through the years, and we always think of her when we use them. One of those is still a favorite at our Thanksgiving and Christmas Dinners every year. I know she will be missed so greatly and I will be praying for you all as you go through these hard days ahead. So thankful for that Blessed Hope that we have in our Lord that we will see our loved ones again.

*Love and Prayers,
Kernessa White*
