

Jack C. Moore

January 24, 1941 - February 11, 2026

Jack C. Moore passed away peacefully on February 11th, surrounded by his loving children, at the age of 85, after a long and courageous battle with cancer and Alzheimer's. Born on January 24th, 1941, in Roane County, Jack could be found just about every morning at the Handee Burger for breakfast with his friends in the Handee Burger Gang.

Jack loved many things in life, none more than his family. Jack prioritized his family above everything else in his life, only second to his Lord and Savior, and embraced the joys and responsibilities of family life. He committed to attending every sporting event, school event, recital, scouting ceremony, and graduation for all of his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, proudly serving as their biggest cheerleader. He was a fervent fan of the University of Tennessee sports, serving as an usher for the Vols' home football games for several years and attending various sporting events. He enjoyed attending Tennessee Smokies baseball games regularly. Jack was also an avid Dale Earnhardt fan and attended as many races at Bristol as he could with his family. In his final months, he enjoyed sitting on his back porch in his rocking chair with his wife, Nancy, watching the birds and wildlife.

In the U.S. Army, Jack served as a paramedic during the Vietnam War era, dutifully serving our country. He founded the Edgewood Baptist Church in Kingston, where he served as pastor for over 10 years. Retired from the U.S. Postal Service, Jack worked as a rural letter carrier for 32 years and served for over 40 years for the National Rural Letter Carrier Union as a steward, officer, and president, showing his dedication by never missing a State or National Convention. Within the State Conventions, he served on every committee, demonstrating his exceptional engagement and devotion.

Although he has left behind his six beautiful children, 14 precious grandchildren, and 17 treasured great-grandchildren, he will always be in their hearts and minds for the rest of their lives. A patriarch like Jack is rare, one who's so generous, smart, and kind. A father like him is one everyone needs, full of love and laughter, jokes and wisdom, kindness and understanding. Jack was preceded in death by his parents, Jesse and Lydia Moore; his sister, Gertrude Woody; his grandchildren, Josh and Jessica Hensley; and his daughter-in-law, Tracey Moore.

“ Enjoyed working with Jack for 23 years at the Kingston Post Office before I retired. He always came in with all the local news that he got from the guys at Hardies every morning before he came to work. I know his family will miss him. I will be unable to come to services because of my health but I will be thinking of all of you during this time. Love you Doris Edmonds

“ While I did not know Jack personally, I knew him through the stories shared with me by his son, Mark. I had been praying for Jack for a few months now and was saddened to learn of his passing. His crossing over Jordan is going to leave a huge hole and his memory will live on through his family and the stories they share with their children and grandchildren. He lived a good, full life and now it is time for God's good and faithful servant to rest. My prayers will continue for Mark and the rest of the family during this difficult time.

“ Jack was a great asset to the Tennessee Rural Letter Carrier's Association. He was dependable, courteous, knowledgeable and always willing to assist in any way. Anytime Jack was assigned to a committee, we knew that the job would be done correctly. I knew of his love for family, country, community and church for he talked about it often during our private conversations. Jack was a genuine person, mild mannered and full of laughter. We share with you in your loss.

Thomas Keys, Past President-Tennessee Rural Letter Carrier's Association

“ as one of his great-grandchildren, he never failed to tell me how proud he was of me, how smart I am, and more. he made it clear he was so happy to see his family on fire for God. i'm so excited to see him in heaven some day. I love you so much, papaw. Whenever I sing for the Lord, you'll always be in my heart.

“ My favorite thing about Jack was always his sense of humor. When I picture him in my mind, it's always with a slight smirk on his face. He was a good man. Love and prayers to the whole family.
