“ The first time I ever rode a horse carrying a 3-year-old in my arms with a saddle slid off at least I know I still had him in my arms it's nice to know how beautiful the years passed and the years go only for us to reunite and didn't know that we were the same two ones that have met as a child God bless you sir for accepting me in your home and allowing me to be a child your grandson is a beautiful man God bless you and I pray that Jordan still knows I'm still going to be your friend and be there to catch him if he ever needs someone to love him I know life was very hard for all of this may you remain in peace God bless you Uncle
