

James M. "Buster" Clark

February 15, 1929 - November 6, 2013

James M. "Buster" Clark age 84 of Kingston, formerly of Loudon passed away Wednesday November 6, 2013. Preceded in death by parents Fred and Martha Clark, daughter Roseanna Clark, brothers John, Fred Jr. and Lawrence Clark, sister Florence Julian. Buster loved to fish then cook and eat them. His two best fishing buddies were his son-in-law Doug Colvin and dear friend John Lennex who both left before him. Maybe now all together again, they can catch up.

Survived by wife of 64 years Pauline Clark and daughter Karen of Harriman Care and Rehab; daughter Mona Colvin of Maryville and daughter Regina Hall and husband Darrell of Kingston, sister Margaret Hall of Harriman.

Memorial Graveside service will be announced at a later date at the Roane Memorial Gardens in Rockwood.

Tribute Wall

BT

“ Some of our favorite memories were going to the drive-in on Friday nights and getting a couple of Mr. Clark's great pizzas and enjoying the movies. Your family will be in our thoughts and prayers.

Bob & Susan Arwood - Lenoir City, TN - November 09, 2013 at 12:00 AM

GF

“ A person that departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, through us, they live on. Please accept our condolences, he will not be forgotten. -Buster will not be forgotten

GARY & JUANITA (JOHNSTON) COOK - LOUDON, TN - FRIEND - November 09, 2013 at 12:00 AM