“ Mr. Garner brought his family to Franklin, NC as an employee of the Burlington Hosiery Mill. He and his family were a most welcome addition to our small mountain town, The hosiery mill enabled many local employees and their families to become members of a much larger family who had a tremendous common bond. My dad worked with Mr. Garner many years at the hosiery mill. Mr. Garner also worked with my mother at the Indian Mound Burger Chief and proved to be of utmost assistance in that small short order cafe. Life and careers enabled the Garners and Huscussons to enjoy a great bond that continues today. I cherish that relationship and know it will continue throughout eternity. Looking to seeing Mr. Garner again.
