

James K. Griffith

July 14, 1920 - November 11, 2009

James K. (Buster) Griffith age 89, of Kingston, died November 11, 2009 at Renaissance Terrace Care and Rehabilitation Center. He was a member of Young's Chapel Cumberland Presbyterian Church. He was the son of James William Griffith and Jack Cade Griffith. He worked as a farmer, survey engineer, guard, service station operator, lumber company clerk, and vocational teacher.

He is survived by his wife, Edith Smith Griffith, sister Anna Nelle Griffith of Kingston, son and daughter-in-law Gary and Dianne Griffith of Kingston, daughter and son-in-law Nancy and Charles Watson of Knoxville, grandchildren Jennifer Langham, Joanna Griffith, Megan Ritz, Nathaniel Watson, and Alyssa Watson, and 4 great-grandchildren.

Funeral 7pm Friday November 13, 2009 in the Kyker Chapel with Rev. Jack Anderson officiating. Burial 11am Saturday at the Lawnville Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Gideons International. The family will receive friends from 5 until 7pm Friday at the Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston.

Tribute Wall

TK

“ To all of Buster's family, my prayers are with you. He was one of the finest people I have ever met. Enjoyed our friendship especially while at Shiloh Baptist Church.

Tom Kendrick - November 15, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DH

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of your loss. Buster was a blessing to us. We always looked forward to seeing him years ago at the Gideon meetings. My God Bless and comfort you Edith.

Dick and Donna Hall - November 15, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ Having enjoyed knowing Buster for over forty years, I can say that he was a fine man, a friend. He will be missed. My condolences to the family.

Mark Barker - November 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM