

James M. (Jimmy) Henry, Jr.

May 31, 2016

James M. (Jimmy) Henry, Jr. passed away Tuesday, May 31 at his home in Kingston, Tennessee. The son of Jim and Pat Henry of Kingston. Preceded in death by his brother John Calvin Henry and grandparents Ira M. (Scobey) Henry; Lorene Henry also of Kingston. Survived by sister Liesa Henry and grandmother Millie Harvey.

Jimmy loved farming, Jeeps, old cars, politics and the outdoors. He lived on the family farm and enjoyed family relationships and special friend Lewana Webb. He was an accomplished writer and wrote many articles he shared with friends and family. His special bond in life was his brother John. Jimmy was John's brother, confidant and for a period of time lived together with Jimmy having sole responsibility for John's care. Another of their great memories was John and Jimmy's Jeep trip out West, when they were both very young. Memories made that would last a lifetime and beyond. John went to be with the Lord four years ago and now finally they are reunited with his beloved grandparents. Jimmy was always Nina and Pa's favorite child and actually grew up next door to them on Lakeside Drive in Kingston.

Graveside service 11am Friday June 3, 2016 at the Kingston Memorial Gardens. Memorial contributions may be made to the Boys and Girls of Roane County P.O. Box 280 Kingston, TN. 37763.

“ I want to offer my condolences to the Henry family. It is a painful thing to lose a love one in death_ especially one is so young. So painful death is that even Jesus, when Lazarus died, "gave way to tears"(John 11: 35). It pains our Creator, too, and he has promised to bring our love one back to life at Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will rise ...Awake and shout joyfully you residents in the dust! ...the earth will let those powerless in death come to life" then "he will swallow up death forever ..." (Isaiah 25:8). I hope these words from our Creator give you comfort.
