

James "Jim" A. Murr

August 28, 1946 - April 22, 2016

James "Jim" A. Murr, 69, formerly of Kingston, passed away on April 22, 2016 in Macon, GA. Jim was born in Johnson City on August 28, 1946. He graduated from Roane County High School in 1964. Jim joined the U.S. Air Force after graduation and served most of his time during the Vietnam War stationed in Thailand. After the war he graduated from Georgia College with a B.S. in business administration and went to work in the private sector for the Air Force at Warner Robins Air Force Base in Georgia, where he later retired. After retiring, Jim worked as a successful certified public accountant in Warner Robins until his health started to fail him.

Jim was the founder of The Open Door Church of Warner Robins where he served as minister for many years. He also enjoyed fishing, coaching youth sports and watching the Tennessee Vols and the Atlanta Braves. Jim loved animals, especially his dog, Dinkie.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents Bruce and Ina Murr, one brother, Gary W. Murr and a nephew, Jacob C. Murr.

He will be greatly missed by his loving wife, Linda Murr, Warner Robins, GA; two sons, Robert Bradley Murr (Thomas Tatham), Lake Worth, FL; James Douglas Murr, Warner Robins, GA; granddaughter Rhiannon Carney, Savannah, GA; brothers Cecil S. Murr (Teresa), Rockwood, TN and Gregory D. Murr (Margaret), Kingston, TN; and sister-in-law Daley Rogers (Tom), Kingston, TN.

A memorial service will be held in Kingston at a later date.
