“ Jim was a good friend, and a good man. We shared a love of music, and shared many an album back in the day. He and I played in a couple of bands together, he told me a few days ago that Maxx was one of his favorites, which pleasantly surprised me. We had a lot of fun together. He was one of the funniest people I knew, quick witted and sarcastic in a good way. I have a lot of great memories of times together. He will be missed.

“ So Sorry to receive this news. Jim and I were good friends back in the day. We would ride around for hours talking. I could talk to him about anything and vice versa. He loved being the center stage frontman and singer and was great at it. He always had the knack of making each of his friends feel special and what a great sense of humor! But most of all, he adored Shawn and was so proud being his Dad. Rest in peace JimBob. Love you

“ I have known Jim all my life. I have many wonderful memories of him. He always had a glimmer of mischief in his eye and a great sense of humor. He was a true and loyal friend. Unfortunately time and distance got in the way since we got out of school. I regret that I had not seen him in many years. You made a difference Jim, and that is what counts. Your ripple will be felt for a long time.

“ Jim was a great friend, all the way back to High School. Fond memories of Doctor Jimmy. From the days of playing Steppenwolf tapes on school grounds thru a lot of adventures as we grew older. Bought a lot of good music CDs and cassettes from him when he in the sales of those items. Loved the guy!

“ The first time I saw Jim, I knew he was a rock star. He had long flowing hair and a swag like Mic Jagger. We later went to a music shop and he walked around the store and played every instrument! Jim loved music and he loved Shawn. He was kind and funny. I am grateful for our many adventures and that he helped me get sober. Keep rocking Dr. Jimmy.
