“ To my good friend, Bobby and Jimmy's entire family. Although we did not know Jimmy, except through his father, Bobby's eyes, we feel as if we have known him forever. His father's love can be seen whenever he talks about his beloved sons and the good times that they shared. If a man's legacy is measured by the character and love of God displayed by his children, then Bobby has every reason to be proud. May God bring comfort to you in this hour of grief and return the good memories in time.
