“ My Daddy wasn't just a Daddy. He was a protector, caregiver, friend, lighthouse in a storm, keeper of secrets, and fixer of all things broken. But, my brokenness will continue until I see him and Mama in Heaven where we will praise our precious Lord for eternity. I was blessed to have his presence in my life for 56 years. I would have loved 20 more. He wanted to live until he was 100—but I've no doubt that he is in a place of perfect peace and praise. I'll see you again one day, Daddy, just look for me at Jesus' feet.

“ Jim was my brother-in-law but he was a friend too. I loved him just like he was my brother. The man definitely had southern ways. I loved listening to the stories him and my husband Paul would talk about. We are going to really miss him. He's with Jackie now and they are both very happy. Rest in peace Jim and Jackie now you can rest. Love you both very much thank you for being who you were. Love Gail. God bless everyone

*Jim Wallace was a very special cousin. They all are. Our families have been close even though far in miles.
Love getting to know Wanda through FB.
God is great and has perfect lives for His children. See you Jim and Jackie.*
