“ , I recently was able to reconnect with my cousin, Janet, after many years. And while it was limited to email correspondence, it was obvious to me that she was still that sweet, loving girl I remember so well. I am greatly saddened by her passing, but happy to know that she was able to find happiness her life. My sincere condolences to Janets family. Bill Dwyer

“ So sorry to hear of Ms. Gasparetti's passing.I got to know her while she was in the hospital. I work in x-ray and I will never forget her. She gave me a copy of her book, and I will always cherish it.

“ You and swabbi were so important to me and always will be. Thank you for loving my family as your own and being such a wonderful and beautiful person. Not only did we gain you and swabbi as family but the rest of you family have received us with open arms. I'll always remember and think of the impression you and Don made on our lives. I see the footprints of the two of you in our lives everyday and it warms my heart. I love you and will visit the two of you often.

Your meat headed son,
Marty Miles

“ You came into this world in a spring storm that blew the door off the cab, and I will always love that you followed your heart and made a great life with Uncle Donnie. You were someone I looked up to, and not just because you were tall. Every time we talked it was like no time had passed, and I will miss the laughs we had, even that time you took me by the shoulders and guided me out of the room so you could get some sleep. I still remember how tight you hugged me when I nearly knocked us both off the train platform in California, and I still have the pictures from the time you and Uncle Donnie called from the space station. I'm so grateful we had so many good times, like when you told King Kong I liked him as he was trying to eat the tram we were in. I know you believed if you could do it, anyone could, but only you could be you, and the world was better for it. Thank you for loving me, my favorite Aunt Janet. I'll miss your pinches and your hugs, your stories and your laugh.

“ To my sister Janet,

I thought I heard you call my name, "Judy," softly this morning.

Hope it was. I believe we stay connected in both worlds.

Our hearts were once again broken at the loss of you, painful and toughest feeling to deal with.

I'll miss everything about you. I take comfort only in knowing you're together with the love of your life Donald.

Bless you both and rest in peace.

Till we meet again.

Love always and forever,

Judy
