“ My prayers continue to be with your family. I will always remember Jay as being a loving father and a dedicated and hardworking man. I will miss working with him. I am sure his greatest concern through all of this was not for himself but for his family. May God be with you.

“ My prayers go out to the Monroe family and to Jay. Jay was always cheerfull and made working with him very easy. He always was a loving father to his family. I noticed some of the other condolences given here before me. I would like to thank them too. These people helped but together many fund rasiers for the family as I did too & we will always be there for his family. May God be with you to help you through these painfull times and guide you to remembering the great time that was spent together with this man Jay Monroe!
