

Jesse Matthew Rittenhouse

September 16, 2004

Jesse Matthew Rittenhouse, age 25, of Harriman died Thursday, September 16, 2004 as the result of a motor vehicle accident while in the line of duty for the Harriman Police Department. Matt was a lifelong resident of Harriman and graduated from Harriman High School in 1997. He attended Roane State Community College and was a 2002 graduate of the Tennessee Law Enforcement Academy at Donelson. He worked first for the Roane County Sheriff's Department as a Corrections Officer and has been a Patrolman with Harriman Police Department since 2001. Matt was a member of Morrison Hill Christian Church in Kingston. He loved his Lord, his family, his work in law enforcement and his Chief. He was known in his family as his Dad's "Bud" and his Mom's "Smiling Eyes". My wonderful brother – I will fill the hole left in my heart with the many joyful memories we have shared in our life together – until we meet again in heaven. – Jenny.
