“ *Becky, Debbie, and Rusty,
So many memories were created by your mom, dad, and each of you. Neighbors, friends, student, Christian fellow-ship and singing.*

Halloween would not have been the same without Jessie's carmel apples.

David and Heather also grew up with the same shared love from your family.

Sorry I missed the services.

As someone stated earlier, Heaven gained an angle and earth lost a good and caring soul.

A piece of her lives on in each of you.

She will be missed.

“ This is a message to Sarah and her family. I only know your grandmother through what I read in the obituary and it makes me wish I had known her. In fact, i wonder if she ever worked at the Kingston schools from 1953-1965? I know what it is like to lose a wonderful parent and so I am extending my condolences.

“ What a legacy Jessie is leaving behind for her family and friends. She was an inspiration to many people through her involvement in church, music, school, and civic organizations. I was her student at Edgewood, her co-worker and partner in church music for many years, and most of all her friend in Christ. Ronnie and I will miss seeing her at church and singing in the choir.

To the family - Our love and prayers will be with you in the days ahead.

“Jessie was such a wonderful and inspiring lady. I remember when I decided to go into teaching, she sat me down and told me I would be poor, I would work harder at this than any job, and I would feel more love and gratification than any other job could offer. Yes, she was right again. When PaPaw married my mom, Granny Mae, I was much younger than the rest of the "kids" and Jessie helped raise me, too. I love you Jessie and you would be very proud of the legacy you have left behind.

“I have so many wonderful memories of Ms. Jessie. She was my 6th grade teacher, but the Principal at Edgewood Elementary the entire 6 years I attended. I loved her, but feared her at the same time....which is how it should be. I hated the sound of someone in the office getting a paddling by her and made sure that was never me in there.....although I probably came close one time. If schools today were how they were then....there would be much more respect from children and a lot less violence in the schools. She went out of her way to teach the girls how to be young ladies and taught us all to respect one another, especially our elders. She truly cared about every child she came in contact with. I'm so glad she was able to attend the Edgewood Reunion we had in 2009. That meant a lot to all of us kids but I think it meant the world to her that we all thought enough about our Edgewood days that we would want to have a reunion to honor those memories.....that she was such a huge part of. I feel very blessed to have known her and had her in my life during those 6, very impressionable years, of my young life. Rest in peace, Ms. Jessie. You will never be forgotten!

“ Will miss seeing that smiling face at church and hearing her sing. She was an inspiration to me at church, was always there for others. She always asked how everyone in the family was doing and was and always asked how Kendra and Ben was doing or as she said her kids. Will miss you Ms Jessie but will see you again in heaven. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ I will never forget how you used to call or write me ever so often just to check on me and my family. You never judged, just truly loved. I miss you, but as my eyes start to fill with tears, I think of you being the 4th to join the Wright Family Gospel Singers quartet with Uncle J.D, Aunt Armena, and Uncle Clyde. I know heaven is that much sweeter now. I love you and thank God for you always beautiful lady!

“ Words fail me to be able to tell you what your Mother meant to me for all of my life. Your Dad was there when my Mom and Dad married so that takes our families back a long way....Your Mom was my school teacher in the 4th and 6th grades at Edgewood and more importantly she was my Sunday School teacher and probably one of my Training Union teachers too and an all around spiritual influence. When I am asked about my favorite school teacher I never have to think twice...it's always your Mom! I am so glad we had the Edgewood reunion and were able to somewhat honor her during that event. We had a funny story that she told about when Bug and I started dating.... We were at a singing in Harriman and when she saw us together she thought I was with Bug's brother, Gene. (who by the way had several children at that time!) She became so upset she could hardly go onstage! But we all have laughed many times since about the 'mistaken identity'. I have tried to keep in touch with her for all the years since but haven't done a very good job of it this past year. She was on my Christmas Letter list and will be missed this year. I just want you as a family to know, I loved her so.... Her works will continue on in my life....Love, thoughts and prayers for all of you at this time.

“ Ms. Jessie, tears come to my eyes just to say your beautiful name. My memories of you go back to Edgewood Elementary School. You were my 4th and 6th grade teacher. My sister Sharon was born while I was in your 4th grade class. You brought the most beautiful little dress for her, but it was so special to me. You took our 6th grade class roller skating and you got on skates with us. You continued after many falls, but we were all there to help you up. That's the way you were Ms. Jessie, always there to "pick up" who ever needed it. You have touched so many lives many more than you might have known. We enjoyed The Wright Family Singing and always so special when you and J.D. sang specials at church. I will always see you in the choir Ms. Jessie, remembering your years as choir director, the beautiful programs performed. You are leaving us with a seat that will never be filled. Growing up with Becky, Debby and Rusty in school and church was special. My heart breaks for them at this time, it just to hard to say goodbye. So with that I'll close Ms. Jessie, I'll say this from a song you and J.D. sang many times " I Want to Stroll Over Heaven With You"...with you someday... Love and Prayers to the family
